14th Consultative Forum on microinsurance regulation for insurance supervisory authorities, insurance practitioners and policymakers

“InsurTech: rising to the regulatory challenge”

24 October 2018
Madero Walk, Puerto Madero, Buenos Aires, Argentina

Why attend?
Digital technologies have experienced rapid growth in recent years and are changing the insurance landscape, by paving the way for new players and business models with the potential to expand coverage faster than ever before, while enhancing efficiencies and lowering costs across the product lifecycle. The 14th Consultative Forum provides a platform for dialogue between regulators, the industry and other stakeholders, as well as the opportunity to meet with and learn from colleagues and experts involved in InsurTech innovation from Latin America and other regions.

Who should attend?
Senior representatives of insurance regulatory and supervisory authorities and supervisors from other relevant sectors, policymakers, insurers, brokers, InsurTech companies, aggregators, international development partners.

What are the key themes?
* Understanding future trends: how will new technologies and actors change the insurance landscape?
* Creating customer value: what value can these technologies bring to emerging customers?
* Stimulating innovation: what does the private sector need to foster innovation? How can policymakers and supervisors create environments that enable and encourage innovation?
* New regulatory considerations: what approaches are regulators around the world adopting to facilitate digital innovation in their markets? What key lessons can be learned from these?

Who are the hosts?
The 14th Consultative Forum will be hosted by the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS), the Association of Insurance Supervisors of Latin America (ASSAL), the Superintendencia de Seguros de la Nación (SSN), the Access to Insurance Initiative (A2ii) and the Microinsurance Network (MiN). It will take place alongside the ASSAL-IAIS Regional Seminar for Insurance Supervisors of Latin America (21- 23 October 2018).
