scheduled for the afternoon of 14th March 2017

hosted by the

Dear Madam, Dear Sir,

The International Association of Insurance Supervisors, the Microinsurance Network and the Access to Insurance Initiative are pleased to invite you to the 9th Consultative Forum on “Exploring challenges in scaling up insurance as a disaster resilience strategy for smallholder farmers”.

Agricultural index-based insurance has shown promising developments for smallholder farmers so far. In addition to helping farmers manage day-to-day production risks, it also contributes to national disaster resilience by providing financial protection to a vulnerable community that often forms a large part of developing country populations. However, recent discussions among regional policymakers have revealed challenges in scaling up index insurance in a sustainable way. This Forum will discuss these challenges, while highlighting how three equally critical stakeholders – insurance supervisors, policymakers and the industry – can cooperate and align their respective roles in addressing these challenges.

The half-day Consultative Forum will take place two days before the 12th Annual Conference of the Asian Forum of Insurance Regulators and will bring together around 70 high-ranking representatives from the public sector, supervisory authorities and the insurance industry. The objective of the Consultative Forums is to bring about dialogue between policymakers, supervisors and the industry which is critical in fostering knowledge and sound policymaking in the field of inclusive insurance.

We warmly invite you to enrich this seminar with your participation and contribution.

Please mark the afternoon of the 14th of March 2017 in your calendar. To participate in the Consultative Forum, please register via email at: info@microinsurancenet.org

Yours faithfully,
