

Job Announcement

Chief Executive Officer at the Microinsurance Network

The Microinsurance Network is a global industry body based in Luxembourg, which promotes the development and delivery of effective insurance services to low-income people, thereby contributing to a vision of a world where people of all income levels are more resilient and less vulnerable to daily and catastrophic risks.

The Network plays a critical role in unlocking the shared value in the insurance industry in emerging and developing markets by bringing together market players, regulators and donors to navigate the evolving landscape, particularly the latest wave of technological developments, the need for insurance to contribute to broader public policy objectives such as poverty reduction, growth, agricultural, health and climate change, as well as the role of the industry and regulators in building market capacity.

It provides and facilitates a global multi-stakeholder platform through which members collaborate in order to generate and share knowledge, tools, ideas and information pertinent to the expansion of micro-insurance in emerging and developing markets.

The Mandate

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) will be responsible for evolving and implementing the vision and strategy for the Network, as well as accountable for increasing its reach and relevance and building and driving strategies to ensure its financial sustainability.

Critical criteria

- An industry leader with extensive experience in one or more of the following areas:
 - Microinsurance
 - Insurance
 - Financial Inclusion or relevant poverty alleviation
- A working knowledge, understanding of and deep commitment to emerging markets
- Must be able to demonstrate past success in driving financial sustainability
- Strong relationship-builder, leader and motivator of people
- Past experience in a leadership / secretariat role in a member-driven organisation is a strong preference
- This role represents a unique career-defining opportunity for a credible industry expert to elevate their professional profile, as well as contribute to social good on a global stage
- Flexibility to travel

- Excellent representation skills
- Good connections to the world of microinsurance and good knowledge of microinsurance trends and topical issues
- Proven fundraising track record
- Ability to lead and inspire the team, providing a sense of direction and purpose
- Ability to manage a team in terms of workload and individual interests
- Ability to identify and prioritise initiatives and events of importance to the Network.

About Jack Hammer

Jack Hammer is a leading executive search firm, globally connected through the IRC Executive Search Partners, with a history of successfully identifying and securing exceptional leaders.

Contact

To express interest in this opportunity, please reach out to Barbara Hooper on Barbara@jhammer.co.za.